Office KK 2 — island dressing

The office's KK 2: a walk-in dressing with a central island under a curved wall, the master opening into a garden lounge, and a family lounge on the landing.

- A generous shared walk-in dressing (about 4.2 × 2.7 m plus the flared top) with a double-sided island and wardrobes on three walls, entered by a sliding door from the master passage.
- The dressing's top wall curves and turns at 45 degrees, so the garden lounge above it gets a sofa nook that hugs the curve and the room still reads as one with the bedroom.
- Master suite behind one door off the landing: a 1.2 m passage leads to the bedroom, the shower room (2.3 m walk-in shower, double basin) and the dressing; bedroom and garden lounge flow into each other, with a kitchenette run on the east wall and the terrace door.
- The landing becomes a family lounge: a curved L-sofa facing a TV wall and a curved bar with a round basin and two stools at the top of the stair.
- Kids wing kept simple: a 4.4 × 3.9 double room with twin 1.1 m beds and a shared nightstand, a 3.8 × 3.9 play room / mini gym with a storage wall, and a kids bath with walk-in shower.
